

Bed & Breakfast

Wildwood, New Jersey

The Jersey Shore loves nostalgia and here's just one more example. Kitschy, lively and fun - it's the Summer Nites Bed and Breakfast.

Summer Nites is a 50's Theme Bed and Breakfast decorated in 1950's furnishings and décor.

The owners of Summer Nites, Sheila and Rick Brown have taken a beautiful mid 1900's home and created a building reminiscent of one back in the 1950's. Summer Nites has all of the modern amenities enjoyed in a modern lodging while retaining and capturing the excitement and uniqueness of the early days of Rock-and-Roll. A stay at Summer Nites is like a step back into the 1950's. Summer Nites is located in a quiet residential area of North Wildwood, New Jersey, at the Jersey Shore. The bustling night life of both Wildwood and Anglesea are within one mile in either direction.

While at Summer Nites you will dine in a unique box car diner complete with 1953 Seeburg Jukebox, neon lighting, diner booths and more. Or you may choose to dine on one of the outdoor decks. Breakfast is served from the diner kitchen where you can watch as the cook prepares breakfast. After breakfast you can stroll the world famous beach and boardwalk only two blocks from the premises. Bicycles are available for those who might enjoy a morning ride on the boardwalk or around town.

 The Inn at Middleton Place

Charleston, SC

This place has it all!

Located just outside Charleston, SC, on the bluffs of the Ashley River, the Inn at Middleton Place offers relaxing accommodations in an atmosphere of unsurpassed natural beauty.

A recipient of the American Institute of Architects highest award, the Inn's design is a contemporary counterpoint to the adjacent 18th-century Middleton Place, America's oldest landscaped gardens, and a National Historic Landmark.

In addition to gracious sleeping-room accommodations, with scenic views and seasonal wood-burning fireplaces, guests of the Inn enjoy a wide range of educational experiences. The Middleton Place Gardens, House Museum, and Stableyards tell the story of one of America's most important families and the history of a thriving South Carolina rice plantation. Middleton Outdoor Center's naturalists facilitate daily guided- and self-guided walking, biking and kayaking tours of the woods, marsh and river. Take a stroll through the Cut-Flower Garden or find peace while visiting the Labyrinth. (Or just enjoy the breeze off the Ashley River while lying in a hammock...enjoying the serenity that is.

Meranova Guest Inn

Dunedin, Florida

I know most of you are wondering - where is Dunedin? Well, it's in Central Florida, bordered by Clearwater to the South and East, the Gulf of Mexico to the West and Palm Harbor to the North. It is very close to one of the most beautiful beaches in Florida - Caladesi State Park. Dunedin is one of the most quaint and charming towns in the state. Stroll the streets for fine dining, art galleries and shops.

Sitting in the middle of the downtown area is the Meranova Guest Inn, which I toured and found to be lovely. The rates are reasonable, all suites have a private entrance and there is a heated pool. It sits across the street from a top notch restaurant, La Maison Gourmet owned by Chef John Lewis. Food was great and they have a wine bar, outdoor eating area and offer culinary classes as well.

Check it out!

Oregon

A wonderful place to relax and unwind inside an elegantly appointed, recently restored turn of the Century Craftsmen home. Listed on the National Registry of Historic Places, the home was built in 1900 and has been updated with all the modern conveniences. Located in Historical Waterfront St Helens, Oregon with outstanding views of the Columbia River, just 32 miles from downtown Portland and 64 miles from the Coast. The Inn is centrally located for day travel to Astoria and the Oregon Coast, Mt. Hood, Mt. St. Helens and the Columbia Gorge. Every morning guests are invited downstairs to our Formal Dining room to the inviting aroma of homemade organic foods being prepared for your breakfast. We go to great lengths to obtain only the finest and freshest ingredients in the Northwest. Aromatic herbs and edible flowers come from our own gardens still damp with morning dew. We are able to cater to any dietary restrictions or allergies if we are aware of them. Guests are asked to please notify the Innkeeper if they have special requests when making a reservation.

The Francis Malbone House is the epitome of elegance, located in the heart of Newport's Historic Harborfront. The estate was built in 1760 for Colonel Francis Malbone who made his fortune as a shipping merchant. The design of the house is attributed to Peter Harrison, "America's First Architect", who is also responsible for the Touro Synagogue and the Redwood Library. The Francis Malbone House has been lovingly maintained throughout the years, as evidenced by the painstaking restoration undertaken during the early 1970's. In 1996, a sensitively designed addition was added, allowing the inn to expand from nine to a total of eighteen luxurious guestrooms. In 2000, our most recent expansion was completed when we purchased and restored the Benjamin Mason House, a free standing colonial home, c. 1750. The Benjamin Mason House features a suite and a guestroom bringing our total number of rooms to twenty.

Stonover Farm is a 110-year-old Berkshire "cottage" which served as farmhouse to the Stonover Estate, and which has been renovated extensively to provide luxury quarters. The main house, Rock Cottage and new School House Suite are now receiving guests who desire a unique Bed & Breakfast experience. Since a "full house" is typically 10 guests, we are able to provide personal assistance, in order to assure the most enjoyable Berkshire experience possible. The inn stands beside a spring-fed duck pond on 10 country acres with magnificent trees, lawns and forest, and yet it's just 7/10 of a mile from the Tanglewood main gate, and 2 miles from Lenox Village. Stonover Farm offers all the beauty and serenity of a grand country inn, while providing all the conveniences of a first class city hotel, including 4 fireplaces, living room, greenhouse, library, dining room, sunny breakfast room, patio and courtyard overlooking the pond, air conditioning in all suites (each suite with bedroom, sitting room and bath), private complimentary phones with voicemail, Sony flat-screen televisions, DVD players with DVD movie library, and Bose Wave radio / CD players with a selection of music for enjoyment in the suites. There are robes, amenities, a full cooked-to-order country breakfast, wine and cheese in the late afternoon, and a guest computer equipped with high-speed internet access as well as universal wireless access throughout -- all this in a stunning, peaceful country setting.

Our country house is open year round to guests travelling to visit the wonderful sights of County Kerry known to us locals as "The Kingdom". We are located 1 mile from the busy town of Killarney and yet idyllically situated at the edge of a wooded river valley known as "The Fairy Glen". Our location is ideal for a based holiday , touring the scenic sights of Kerry , playing golf on world renowned championship golf courses and links , fishing and hill walking in this most beautiful part of Ireland. Our natural 3.5 acre garden contains many wild flowers throughout the year and is equally splendid when autumn sets in . The garden is bordered by the river Deenach which eventually flows through Killarney town and National park. A path (lit by night) leads along the riverbank and woodlands of the house.

Cape Cod

Regarded by respected lodging reviewers as perhaps Cape Cod's finest small inn. This historic and elegant sea captain's estate on two acres is the perfect choice for a romantic getaway, or a peaceful retreat.

Both the reception hall and common room with its wood-burning fireplace are beautifully appointed with Williamsburg antiques and reproductions. The elegant library offers a welcome reprise to read the morning paper and savor a cup of coffee. Stroll through the herb garden or relax by one of the many fountains, play lawn croquet or just sit back with a glass lemonade. The heated pool and surrounding wood deck provide an oasis of privacy for some sun-bathing, while the adjacent workout facility attracts a more energetic guest, and those who want to add to their sense of well being can take advantage of our spa services.
