L.A. - Rock and Roll

We're not your ordinary tour bus company.

Our routes veer off into fascinating, neglected neighborhoods. Our expert guides are passionate, brainy and hilarious. Our tour themes are provocative and complex, but never dry, mixing crime and social history, rock and roll and architecture, literature and film, fine art and urban studies into a simmering stew of original research and startling observations.

Where the Action Was is Esotouric's Hollywood and West Hollywood rock and roll history tour, co-hosted by pop music historians Gene "Catalog of Cool" Sculatti and Kim "Scram" Cooper.

In the mid-1960s, the Sunset Strip and Hollywood were ground zero for musical teen youth culture, with scores of great clubs, music shops, recording studios, boutiques, hipster hangouts, radio stations, record stores, and film and TV studios. On the Esotouric bus, you'll travel back in time to map the musical history of Hollywood and West Hollywood, from Beatlemania and folk rock, glitter rock through punk. Along the way we'll follow the career highs and lows of a selection of fascinating LA artists: Bobby Fuller (was it murder or suicide?), Phil Spector, Arthur Lee & Love and the Byrds.

From the teen riots over the closing of Pandora's Box (inspiration for the Buffalo Springfield hit "For What It's Worth") to the late night Canter's Deli scene, from adolescent groupies holding court at Rodney's English Disco to the wild dances invented at Ciro's, and so much between, Where The Action Was is a high-energy voyage to a time when music was thrilling, immediate and deeply tied in to the city of LA.

Dublin, Ireland

Dublin Tour - GhostBus - Let us put you at your unease on the world's only Ghostbus, and introduce you to the dark romance of a city of gaslight ghosts and chilling legends.

The bus itself is a unique attraction, it is a mobile theatre decorated in the gothic style and features a live storyteller who takes you on a spellbinding trip through Dublin. Once onboard, we take advantage of this atmospheric setting to spirit you away to a world of felons, fiends and phantoms and put you in the mood for being both charmed and spooked at the same time.

En route you learn the real origins of Dracula and his Dublin born inventor, Bram Stoker. We stop at the College of Physicians to recreate the strange activities of Dr. Clossy, whose spirit is still seen walking the corridors carrying a bucket of human entrails. We visit the site where Walking Gallows, the notorious judge, jury and hangman dispatched his victims in a most gruesome fashion.

This tour may not suit those of a nervous disposition!

Anchorage City Tour - 3 hours or 5 hours

You can see a lot of Alaska in this narrated coach tour of Anchorage, from floatplanes headed to remote parts of the state for work or play, to an urban salmon run, to the site of homes demolished in North America's largest earthquake — to maybe even some wildlife along the way.

Portage/Big Game Alaska Tour - 6 hours

We travel down scenic Seward Highway, a winding road that winds between picturesque cliffs (look for Dall's sheep!) and Cook Inlet — a journey with no end of eye-opening mountain views. Bring plenty of film, or memory cards, for those of you who prefer digital cameras!

The tour includes photo stops at Bird Point and Beluga Point, where sharp eyes can sometimes spot the white-backed whales. View the mudflats and unusual bore tides of Cook Inlet. And then there are all the opportunities to view hanging glaciers in the mountainsides along the drive to Portage Glacier Lodge.

Texas

Rockport Tours, Inc. is a member of the ABA-American Bus Association, NTA-National Tour Association and CLIA-Cruise Line International Association. Rockport Tours also supports the Rockport Chamber of Commerce and the Corpus Christi Convention and Visitors Bureau. Kay and John Leyland are the owners.

Rockport Tours, Inc. is located in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the Gulf of Mexico. We chose the name Rockport Tours because we started in Rockport, a growing "Winter Texan" town on nearby Aransas Bay. It all began with two tours to Monterrey, Mexico in January 1992. When we moved our office to Corpus Christi from Rockport in 1996, we decided to keep the name of Rockport out of respect to the good folks in Rockport who helped build and continue to support our company. A special "tip of the hat" goes to the Rockport/Fulton Chamber of Commerce.

Boulder, Colorado

Banjo Billy's Bus Tour gives a 90 minute history tour of Boulder Colorado from an old school bus tricked out to look like a traveling hillbilly shack. Hear ghost tales, crime stories, and history while sitting on a couch, recliner or saddle as the bus rolls through the core of the city. You won't forget this bus tour!

Although the bus follows the same route every time, no two tours are alike. Passengers get to vote at multiple stops for what they want to hear about - whether it's a ghost story, a bizarre tall tale, or historical facts. Here are just a few of the things that we cover:

Tours can be arranged by demand. Tour minimums are 8 people. If you have a few people, we can usually find others for an ad-hoc tour so don't be shy.
