Finding services and goods you need is often a challenge, especially when you are traveling in a new and unknown area. The informational links found on this site should make it easier to overcome some of those challenges. They offer unique user-friendly information for resident and visitor alike, making special features available and accessible. The Cape Cod Disability Access Directory is free and the information is based on the guidelines of the Americans with Disabilities Act.

A Golden Access Pass is free for individuals with permanent disabilities. It may be obtained through the National Seashore Park and may be used at National Park Service facilities nationwide.

Dollywood

A trip to the great Smokey Mountains wouldn't be complete without visiting Dolly Parton's very own theme park - Dollywood. In addition to amusement park rides and attractions, we will see live country, bluegrass and gospel music with more than a dozen stage shows. We will also visit the Great Smokey Mountains National Park, and go to Dolly Parton's Dixie Stampede Dinner Show. Experience all this and more with the beautiful Smokey Mountains as the backdrop. The cost is all-inclusive covering airfare, accommodations, meals, supervision and activities.

Camping

At Inspiration Retreat Center, camping takes many different forms. There are summer camp sessions, off-season respite care camps, outdoor education options, and now Travel Tours. Travel Tours mesh a road-trip, sightseeing, and spiritual renewal and refreshment all in one. The Tours are special because often people with disabilities never get to go on vacation. While their traditional camp opportunities are welcome breaks from life, the Tours allow people to see many different parts of the countryside, helping them understand and appreciate the world in a new way.

New Zealand

Deep-sea fishing, jet boating, bush walks, scenic flights and white water rafting are just some of the activities available.

These things do not have to be restricted just to the able. If you've always wanted to try bungy jumping, we can arrange it with specially trained operators catering for the disabled and elderly (The eldest bungy jumper we are aware of is 83 years old).
